Responsive Reading

The conquering hero enters the fallen city.
To the victor belong the spoils.

The conquering hero is a stranger to mercy.
The victor's armies pillage and destroy.

Our conquering Hero is different.
He enters the city humbly on a donkey, bringing Good News to the humble, the poor, the oppressed.

Our Victor comes bearing in his body the message of God's deathless love.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

Meditation "In the Name of the Lord" (Sandi Patty) Margie Evett

Prayer of Confession (in Unison)

Were we there? In whom do we find ourselves at the foot of your cross, O Lord? Like Peter, trying foolishly to defend Jesus with one puny sword? Like most of the other disciples, staying at a safe distance from the cross? Like Judas, betraying the Lord out of a misguided patriotism? Like Caiaphas, equally misguided, offering Jesus up as a scapegoat? Like Pilate, "just following orders," washing his well-manicured hands of the whole thing? In the presence of the One about to be crucified, grant us the pardon he sought and secured for the people of his day, people so much like us. Forgive us and like the good thief, remember us, Lord Jesus, when you come into your kingdom. In your holy name, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Leader: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Please turn cell phones off, and keep masks on at all times, while maintaining a safe distance from other worshipers.

Next Sunday, April 4th, if the weather is nice, we will worship outside for Easter Sunday in the parking lot at 10AM. Please bring your own chair, if you have one, and flowers for the cross. If it's raining or threatening rain, we'll have two services in the sanctuary at 9AM and 11AM.
