The Ethiopian Eunuch, Dive In, by Rev. Lauren Wright Pittman

The more I look at the image, I realize how drawn I was to the water in this text.

“Look there is water! What is to keep me from being baptized?” (Acts 8:37). The answer is nothing—not his status, not his questioning, not even his position in society as a sexual minority. Absolutely nothing keeps him from the water, and it seems as though he knows this truth deep into the very cells of his existence.

Call to Worship

In the wilderness, water brings life.

Seek us out, O God, and take us to the water.

In the Word of God, the good news gives light.

Seek us out, O God, and fill us with understanding.

In the bread and the wine, the body of our Savior nourishes everyone.

Seek us out, O God, and give us yourself. Let us worship God!

Hymn "In Christ Called to Baptize" Insert

Prayer of Confession (in Unison)

God of mercy, we confess that many of us live in fear: for ourselves, for those we know and love, for the whole world and for what is to come. We protect ourselves, turning inward and away from those around us. We have not loved others as you have loved us. We have denied the promises of baptism and cut ourselves off from you. Forgive us, restore us, and transform us with the healing power of your love, O God. Loosen fear's grip on us so that we can be more fully who you have created us to be, your expression of love in the world. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news of God's promise: I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Thanks be to God.
