In this image, Deborah stands firm under her palm tree with her hand open, signifying her openness to God's wisdom and to sharing her voice with others. The chariots of war loom in the distance, but the chariots are empty because, in the midst of impending war, this prophetess can see God's victory before it even takes place. —Rev. Lauren Wright Pittman

Postlude

Please silence your cell phone.

As always, we'd love for you to join us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall immediately following today's worship service. All are welcome.

Clothe yourselves with faith and love;
be confident in your salvation in Christ Jesus.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, Aug. 3rd. from 10-noon, as we welcome back a former Triune intern and poet, Claire Coenen. This retreat is for anyone and everyone. The title is: A Story of Creative Healing: "You have permission to release the pain..." By sharing her own story of healing, Claire offers a creative model for anyone who wants to know more about spiritual growth, about healing from psychological wounds, and about embracing one's own story as a sacred gift for moving forward. Claire recently released her new book of poetry, The Beautiful Keeps Breathing. Please let Pastor Elaine know if you're planning on attending (but not mandatory to attend).

The Lord is with us!
Let us worship God.

Hymn "Rejoice, the Lord is King" UMH #715

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Almighty God, you have shown us the ways of justice and nurtured us with love. Even so, we have not lived according to your will. When we are oppressed or unjustly accused, we cling to fear and forget to trust in your deliverance. When we are giddy with power and abuse the rights of others, we hold tight to our privilege and forget your laws. Have mercy on us, Lord, for we are weak and prone to disobedience. Hear our confession, and respond to us with kindness, that we may turn to you again, walk in the light, and live in equity and peace; through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Children of light, because we belong to our Lord Jesus Christ, we need not fear- for he lived for us, he died for us, he was raised for us and prays for us. Believe the promise of your baptism; in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.
